To Whom It May Concern,

This is to certify that Mr. Abrarali Zakirhusain Sunasara is currently serving as a Software Development Intern at Infiposts Private Limited, from 10th February 2026 to 10th August 2026, for a total internship duration of 6 months. As of 04th August 2026, he has successfully completed the internship responsibilities assigned to him to date and continues to remain an active intern with the organization for the remaining internship period.

During his internship, he has contributed to the development of Annotix (Intelligent Data Annotation Platform), the Binary App, and the HumanTask Platform. His responsibilities have included developing backend APIs, designing database schemas and business logic, implementing authentication and role-based access control, supporting payment integration and task lifecycle management, structuring scalable backend architecture, coordinating backend requirements with frontend teams, establishing development workflows, optimizing APIs, resolving critical issues, and contributing to feature planning and production-ready implementations.

Throughout his internship, he has demonstrated sincerity, dedication, professionalism, and a strong willingness to learn. He has actively collaborated with cross-functional teams and shown a responsible approach toward his assigned work within a collaborative startup environment.

During his tenure with the organization to date, he has gained practical exposure to backend software development, API design, database management, scalable system architecture, collaborative engineering practices, and product development workflows. The internship experience has strengthened his technical knowledge as well as his analytical, communication, and problem-solving skills.

We appreciate his valuable contributions to date and confirm that his internship with Infiposts Private Limited is continuing as per the original internship schedule until 10th August 2026. We wish him continued success in the remainder of his internship and in all his future endeavors.
